

WHO'S WHO IN THE BIG SING 2012

Rachel Hore: Tutor

Rachel Hore lives in the Blue Mountains where she runs 3 choirs. She is often travelling around Australia and overseas, teaching what she loves most-singing. She has taught choirs everywhere- from Kalgoorlie to Canberra and beyond. Rachel's first trip to the desert was to Warburton in 1995, where she ran music workshops for young women and she's been back to the centre many times since. Rachel believes that singing makes you strong, and helps make stronger communities. She takes choirs to Fiji, Italy and Bali where songs and performances are shared.

Morris Stuart: Tutor

Founder and Musical Director of the Alice Springs Choir "Asante Sana". He also directs "Out of the Ashes": a choir he created in Melbourne in 2009 to support Victorian communities that suffered so much from the catastrophic bushfires. He has a passion for music... and for Community Choirs!

He and his wife Barbara live in Central Australia (during winter) and Melbourne (during summer) and travel periodically to Africa where they direct the Mutunga Partnership: an organisation that works with poor communities to alleviate chronic poverty.

Suzy Manigian: Bookings and Enquiries

Suzy lives in Tasmania and is helping Rachel and Morris with bookings and enquiries. She also loves to sing. Suzy is also our camp mum at the Big Sing as she did such a great job last year. If you need anything done, ask Suzy.

Liz Archer: Transport Coordinator and Payment

Liz lives in Alice Springs and is helping Rachel and Morris with transport to and from the Big Sing. If you need help with transport, ask Liz. Liz may also be visiting your community and can collect your payment.
